BOOK SYNOPSIS

"In addition to explaining his concept of uncreative writing, Goldsmith reads the work of writers who have engaged in uncreative writing. Examining a wide range of texts and techniques, including the use of Internet searches to create poetry, the appropriation of courtroom testimony, and the possibility of robo-poetics, Goldsmith joins this recent work to practices adopted by writers and artists such as Walter Benjamin, Gertrude Stein, James Joyce, and Andy Warhol. Yet, more than just a reconfiguration of texts, uncreative writing can also be suffused with emotion and offer new ways of thinking about identity, the making of meaning, and the ethos of our time."--Publisher.
